

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CONTENTS 7

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. 13

FOREWORD 15

PREFACE 17

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS 19

TITLE 1
Introduction to food law

CHAPTER 1. – EMERGENCE OF FOOD LAW AS WE KNOW IT TODAY 25

CHAPTER 2. – FOODSTUFFS AND BORDERLINE PRODUCTS. 31

 Section 1. – Concept of foodstuff 31

 Section 2. – Borderline products: where the issue stands. 32

 Section 3. – Food versus medicinal product 32

 Section 4. – Food versus medical device 36

CHAPTER 3. – OBJECTIVES AND PRINCIPLES OF FOOD LAW 39

CHAPTER 4. – SOURCES OF FOOD LAW 43

 Section 1. – European law, the main source of food law. 43

 Section 2. – The place of national law. 44

 §1. – Non-harmonised or partially harmonised matter 44

 §2. – Harmonised matters 46

 §3. – Monitoring and sanctions 49

 Section 3. – Influence of international law 50

 Section 4. – Self-regulation and co-regulation, sources of soft law. 51

 Section 5. – Private standards 55

CHAPTER 5. – THE KEY INSTITUTIONS AND THEIR COMPETENCES	57
Section 1. – At European level	57
§1. – The european institutions	57
§2. – The commission, food risk manager	57
§3. – EFSA – risk assessor	59
§4. – Cooperation between the various stakeholders	60
Section 2. – At Belgian level	61

TITLE 2

The food business operator

CHAPTER 1. – REGISTRATION, AUTHORISATION AND APPROVAL	65
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	65
Section 2. – What is a food business operator?	66
Section 3. – Determining the type of obligations applicable	68
Section 4. – Registration, authorisation and approval procedure	70
§1. – Notification method	70
§2. – Registration	71
§3. – Authorisation	72
§4. – Approval	73
Section 5. – Refusal to grant authorisation or approval	73
Section 6. – Suspension of authorisation or approval	74
Section 7. – Withdrawal of authorisation or approval	75
§1. – Reasons for withdrawal	75
§2. – Withdrawal procedure	77
Section 8. – Obligation of operators to check the registration, authorisation and/or approval of their co-contractors	80
Section 9. – Contributions and fees to the FASFC	80
CHAPTER 2. – RESPONSIBILITIES AND RISKS	83
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	83
Section 2. – Applicable regimes	84
Section 3. – Legal risks for food business operators	87

TITLE 3
Production conditions for foodstuffs

CHAPTER 1. – INTRODUCTION 91

CHAPTER 2. – FOOD HYGIENE. 93

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 93

 Section 2. – Concept and scope 95

 Section 3. – General and specific hygiene rules 96

 Section 4. – Possibilities of derogation 100

 Section 5. – Consequences of non-compliance with hygiene rules. 102

CHAPTER 3. – SELF-CHECKING 105

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 105

 Section 2. – Self-checking and food safety 105

 Section 3. – HACCP principles 106

 Section 4. – Self-checking guides. 110

 Section 5. – Relaxed HACCP measures and exemptions. 112

CHAPTER 4. – CONTAMINATION OF FOODSTUFFS 115

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 115

 Section 2. – Context and regulatory structure 119

 Section 3. – Microbiological contamination. 120

 Section 4. – Chemical contamination 123

 Section 5. – Physical contamination 128

 Section 6. – Pesticide residues 129

 Section 7. – Radioactive contamination. 131

 Section 8. – Conclusion 133

CHAPTER 5. – TRACEABILITY OF FOODSTUFFS 135

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 135

 Section 2. – Definition and basic principle. 136

 Section 3. – Requirements for the implementation of a traceability system . . . 137

 §1. – Introduction. 137

§2. – Identification data	138
§3. – Implementation of the traceability system	140
§4. – Traceability and food safety	142

TITLE 4

Incident management

CHAPTER 1. – APPLICABLE LEGISLATION	147
CHAPTER 2. – INTRODUCTION	149
CHAPTER 3. – ACTION TO BE TAKEN IN THE EVENT OF A FOOD SAFETY INCIDENT.	151
Section 1. – Overview	151
Section 2. – Mandatory notification to the FASFC	152
§1. – Obligation to notify the operator	152
§2. – Obligation to notify laboratories	154
a. – Belgian laboratories	154
b. – Foreign laboratories	156
Section 3. – Withdrawal of products	157
Section 4. – Consumer information and, if necessary, product recall	158
Section 5. – When to withdraw, when to recall – case study: eggs contaminated with fipronil	159
Section 6. – Fate of non-compliant products	161
Section 7. – International implications	161
§1. – At european level	161
§2. – At global level	163
§3. – Challenging the commission's responsibility for the RASFF	164
CHAPTER 4. – IDENTIFYING A (POTENTIAL) FOOD SAFETY INCIDENT	167
Section 1. – Introduction	167
Section 2. – Review of conditions	167
§1. – When is the operator supposed to “consider” or “have reason to believe”?	167
§2. – What is a food harmful to health?	169

§3. – Food imported versus received from a Belgian supplier. 173

§4. – Concept of placing on the market 174

§5. – Decision tree proposed by the FASFC 175

CHAPTER 5. – MEASURES AND SANCTIONS IN THE EVENT OF NON-COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE RULES 177

CHAPTER 6. – SUMMARY OF STEPS TO BE TAKEN. 179

TITLE 5
Regulated foods

CHAPTER 1. – INTRODUCTION 185

CHAPTER 2. – INGREDIENTS VERSUS PROCESSING AIDS 187

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 187

 Section 2. – Ingredients versus processing aid. 188

CHAPTER 3. – FOOD IMPROVEMENT AGENTS. 193

 Section 1. – Applicable legislation. 193

 Section 2. – Introduction 195

 Section 3. – Food Additives, flavourings and enzymes: the main common principles 196

 §1. – Prior marketing authorisation: union lists 196

 §2. – Uniform procedure for updating union lists 197

 §3. – Obligation of continuous information. 199

 Section 4. – Food Additives. 199

 §1. – Concept 199

 §2. – Structure of the applicable regulations 204

 §3. – Legal regime 207

 a. – Overview. 207

 b. – First condition: the additive must be included on the Union list. 208

 c. – Second condition: the additive must comply with the relevant specifications 210

d. – Third condition: the additive must be authorised in the food in question	211
i. – Additives added to foodstuffs	211
ii. – Additives added to additives, enzymes, flavourings and nutrients	216
§4. – Labelling	217
a. – Introduction	217
b. – Food additives not intended for sale to the final consumer . .	217
c. – Food additives intended for sale to the final consumer	218
i. – Introduction.	218
ii. – Food additives sold alone, in mixtures, or to which other substances have been added	219
iii. – Food additives incorporated into a foodstuff	219
Section 5. – Food Enzymes	220
§1. – Concept	220
§2. – Structure of the applicable regulations	222
§3. – Legal regime	223
§4. – Labelling	226
a. – Introduction	226
b. – Enzymes not intended for sale to the final consumer	226
c. – Food enzymes intended for sale to the final consumer	227
i. – Introduction.	227
ii. – Food enzymes sold alone, in mixtures, or to which other substances have been added	228
iii. – Food enzymes incorporated into a foodstuff	228
Section 6. – Food flavourings	229
§1. – Concept	229
a. – Definition	229
b. – Scope	229
c. – Six categories of food flavourings	230
d. – Traditional food preparation processes	233
§2. – Structure of the applicable regulations	234
§3. – Legal regime	234
§4. – Labelling	237
a. – Introduction	237
b. – Food flavourings not intended for sale to the final consumer	237

c. – Food flavourings intended for sale to the final consumer	239
i. – Introduction.	239
ii. – Food flavourings sold alone, in mixtures, or to which other substances have been added.	239
iii. – Food flavourings incorporated into a foodstuff.	240
d. – Food ingredient with flavouring properties	240
e. – Requirements for the use of the term “natural”.	240
Section 7. – Borderline issues	242
§1. – Introduction	242
§2. – Case study: constituent-rich plant extracts with a technological function	243
§3. – Case study: borderline between flavourings that modify the taste of a food and flavour enhancers (additives)	244
§4. – Case study: borderline between ingredients with colouring properties and colourings (= additives)	247
Section 8. – Conclusion on food improvement agents	247
CHAPTER 4. – NOVEL FOODS	249
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	249
Section 2. – Introduction	250
Section 3. – Concept	252
§1. – Definition	252
§2. – Scope	252
§3. – Demonstration of significant consumption before 15 May 1997	257
Section 4. – Authorisation procedure for a novel food	260
§1. – Traditional foods versus other novel foods	260
§2. – Procedure applicable to traditional foods from third countries	262
§3. – Conventional procedure	264
§4. – Remarks common to both types of procedures	264
§5. – Possibility of obtaining market exclusivity for five years	266
§6. – Administrative transparency and confidentiality	267
Section 5. – Sanctions for non-compliance with rules applicable to novel foods	267

CHAPTER 5. – GENETICALLY MODIFIED FOOD	271
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	271
Section 2. – Introduction	272
Section 3. – Concept	274
Section 4. – Regulatory structure	275
Section 5. – Legal regime	277
§1. – Overview	277
§2. – Principle of prior authorisation	277
§3. – Traceability	280
§4. – Labelling	282
a. – At all stages before sale to the final consumer	282
b. – At the stage of sale to the final consumer and to mass caterers	283
Section 6. – Authorisation procedure	284
§1. – Application file	284
§2. – Steps related to the application procedure	286
§3. – Risk analysis carried out by EFSA	286
§4. – Administrative transparency and confidentiality	287
§5. – Sanctions for non-compliance with rules applicable to GM foods . . .	287
CHAPTER 6. – ADMINISTRATIVE TRANSPARENCY APPLICABLE TO AUTHORISATION APPLICATIONS	291

TITLE 6

Functional foods

CHAPTER 1. – INTRODUCTION	299
CHAPTER 2. – FOOD SUPPLEMENTS	301
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	301
Section 2. – Concept	302
Section 3. – Structure of the applicable regulations	304
Section 4. – Legal regime	306
§1. – Rules on the composition of food supplements	306

a. – Nutrients	306
b. – Plants and plant preparations	310
c. – Other substances	313
d. – Summary of the situation in Belgium	314
§2. – Pre-marketing notification	315
§3. – Labelling and advertising	319
§4. – Bulk sales	321
Section 5. – Monitoring and sanction	321
CHAPTER 3. – FORTIFIED FOODS	323
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	323
Section 2. – Concept	323
Section 3. – Legal regime and labelling	324
Section 4. – Monitoring and sanctions	328
CHAPTER 4. – FOOD FOR SPECIFIC GROUPS	329
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	329
Section 2. – Introduction	330
Section 3. – Structure of the applicable regulations	335
Section 4. – Principles applicable to all categories of food for specific groups	336
Section 5. – Key principles for different food categories	338
§1. – Introduction	338
§2. – Food for infants and young children	338
a. – Concept	338
b. – Legal framework	340
c. – Conclusion	342
§3. – Food for special medical purposes	343
a. – Concept	343
b. – Legal framework	348
c. – Rights and responsibilities of food business operators, national authorities and the European Commission	352
d. – Difficulties linked to divergent interpretations between Member States – exclusion from the principle of mutual recognition	354
e. – Conclusion on food for special medical purposes	355

§4. – Total daily intake substitute for weight control	355
a. – Concept	355
b. – Legal regime	356
c. – Conclusion	359
CHAPTER 5. – CONCLUSION ON FUNCTIONAL FOODS	361

TITLE 7

Food of differentiated quality

CHAPTER 1. – INTRODUCTION	365
CHAPTER 2. – ORGANIC FOOD.	367
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	367
Section 2. – Introduction	370
Section 3. – Scope and objectives of organic food regulations	372
§1. – History	372
§2. – Organic food regulation	372
§3. – Objectives of the Organic Food Regulation	373
Section 4. – Production	376
§1. – General principles	376
§2. – Conversion	377
§3. – Plant production	377
§4. – Animal production	379
§5. – Processing	382
§6. – Storage and transport	384
Section 5. – Placing on the market	385
§1. – Prior notification and certification	385
§2. – Traceability	388
§3. – Suspicion of non-compliance	388
§4. – Occurrence of a disaster affecting organic production	389
Section 6. – Labelling	390
§1. – Conditions to be able to refer to organic production	390
§2. – Additional labelling requirements and logo	392

Section 7. – Importing	395
Section 8. – Monitoring and sanctions	396
Section 9. – Conclusion	397
CHAPTER 3. – FOOD BENEFITING FROM A EUROPEAN QUALITY SCHEME	399
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	399
Section 2. – Introduction	403
Section 3. – Designations of origin and protected geographical indications	406
§1. – Introduction	406
§2. – Protection criteria	407
a. – Agricultural products (except wines and spirits but including aromatised wine products): Regulation (EU) No 1151/2012	407
b. – Wines: CMO Regulation	410
c. – Spirits: Regulation (EU) 2019/787	411
d. – Note on aromatised wine products	413
§3. – Obtaining protection as a PDO, PGI or GI	414
a. – Introduction	414
b. – Applicant	414
c. – Content of the application	415
d. – Registration application procedure	416
e. – Grounds for refusal and opposition	419
f. – Cancellation of registration	423
§4. – Protection granted	424
a. – Principle	424
b. – Scope of protection	424
i. – Exclusive use of the name	424
ii. – Protection against commercial use by products not covered by the registration	424
iii. – Protection against any mention of the protected name	426
iv. – Protection against any other false or misleading indication and against any other practice likely to mislead the consumer	429
c. – Exceptions to protection	429
§5. – Labelling	432
a. – Agricultural products, including aromatised wine products (Regulation (EU) No 1151/2012)	432

b. – Wines	433
c. – Spirit drinks	434
§6. – PDOs, PGIs and third countries	435
Section 4. – Traditional specialities guaranteed (TSGs)	436
§1. – Introduction and protection criteria	436
§2. – Obtaining a TSG	437
§3. – Labelling	440
Section 5. – Optional quality terms	441
§1. – Introduction and criteria for optional quality terms	441
§2. – Mountain products	443
Section 6. – Monitoring and sanctions	444
Section 7. – Conclusion and outlook	446

TITLE 8

Food information

CHAPTER 1. – INTRODUCTION	449
CHAPTER 2. – GENERAL PRINCIPLES: FAIR PRACTICES	451
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	451
Section 2. – General law versus specific law	452
Section 3. – General principles specific to the food law	453
Section 4. – Central point: consumer perception	457
CHAPTER 3. – MANDATORY FOOD INFORMATION	461
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	461
Section 2. – Introduction	463
§1. – Background	463
§2. – Structure of this chapter	465
Section 3. – Prepacked versus non-prepacked food	466
Section 4. – Prepacked foodstuffs	469
§1. – Mandatory information (FIC regulation)	469
a. – Overview	469

b. – Name of the foodstuff	470
i. – Name to be used	470
ii. – Entries to be included in the name.	473
iii. – Plant-based products as alternative to proteins of animal origin.	474
c. – List of ingredients	475
d. – Quantitative ingredient declaration (QUID)	477
e. – Declaration of allergens	479
f. – Net quantity of food	484
g. – Expiry date	485
h. – Storage and/or conditions of use	488
i. – Name or business name and address of the food business operator	488
j. – In certain cases, country of origin or place of provenance	488
k. – Alcohol volume (if > 1.2%)	491
l. – Nutrition declaration	491
i. – Content of the nutrition declaration.	491
ii. – Additional forms of expression and presentation	494
m. – Additional mandatory information (e.g. for products containing caffeine or artificial colourings)	498
§2. – Presentation of information	498
§3. – Language of the mandatory information	499
Section 5. – Mandatory non-prepacked food declarations	500
Section 6. – Distance selling	501
CHAPTER 4. – REGULATED VOLUNTARY INFORMATION	503
Section 1. – Introduction	503
Section 2. – Labelling requirements under the FIC Regulation	504
Section 3. – Reference to the origin of the foodstuff	505
§1. – Applicable legislation	505
§2. – Legal regime	505
Section 4. – Use of Nutri-Score	506
§1. – Applicable legislation	506
§2. – Conditions of use of the nutri-score logo	507
Section 5. – Nutrition and health claims	508
§1. – Applicable legislation	508

§2. – Background	508
§3. – Scope of the claims regulation	509
a. – Criteria	509
i. – Overview	509
ii. – Condition 1: Nutrition or health claim	510
iii. – Condition 2: Voluntary communication	513
iv. – Condition 3: Commercial communication	513
v. – Condition 4: Food intended to be delivered as such to the final consumer	514
b. – Derogations	515
§4. – Basic principle: prior authorisation	515
a. – Overview	515
b. – Authorisation procedure	517
c. – Special cases	520
d. – Claims Regulation against freedom of expression and entrepreneurship	523
§5. – Legal regime when using claims	523
a. – Regime applicable to nutrition and health claims	523
b. – Specific requirements for nutrition claims	526
c. – Specific requirements for health claims	527
§6. – Perspective: nutritional profiles	530
§7. – Conclusion	531
CHAPTER 5. – VOLUNTARY INFORMATION NOT SPECIFICALLY REGULATED	533
Section 1. – Applicable legislation	533
Section 2. – Reminder of the principles	533
Section 3. – Selected examples	534
§1. – Introduction	534
§2. – Graphic representation of flavouring ingredients	534
§3. – References to vegetarian and vegan properties	537
§4. – Natural	540
§5. – Artisan	541
§6. – Negative claims	543
§7. – Environmental claims	545
Section 4. – Conclusion on Food Information Regulations	548

TABLE OF CONTENTS 581

CHAPTER 6. – MONITORING AND SANCTIONS 549

CHAPTER 7. – CONCLUSION ON CONSUMER INFORMATION REGULATIONS 551

TITLE 9

General conclusions and outlook

TABLE OF CASE LAW 557

INDEX 563